London, June 30.—Murice E. Mc-Loughlin, of California, by defeating J. C. Parke, of Ireland, three straight sets to day, qualified for the final round for the lawn tennis championship of the world.

A record crowd came to Wilmbledon to witness the eagerly anticipated semifinal between the two world famous stars. Odds of 5 to 4 were laid on the American. Weather conditions were ideal, and the famous Centre Court wes perfect. Both men turned out absolutely fit, and it would be difficult to find two men in any branch of sport better equipped by nature for them.
